PONCA CITY

Oil Barons and Palaces

The magnificent Marland Mansion is the crown jewel in Ponca City. This 55-room mansion was built by oil tycoon E. W. Marland during the oil boom days of the 1920s. It is exquisitely furnished and has been recognized as one of America's castles. Marland's first home, the Grand Home, is also available for touring with an American Indian Museum on the second floor showcasing a diverse collections of Native American Indian artifacts focused on the north central tribes of Oklahoma: Ponca, Osage, Otoe-Missouri, Kaw, Pawnee and Tonkawa.

PAWHUSKA

Tallgrass Prairie and Western Charm

For a taste of the Old West and a deep dive into Native American culture, Pawhuska is the place to be. The Osage Nation is headquartered here, and the town is surrounded by rich ranch land – a notable one is home to the Pioneer Woman Ree Drummond, of Food Network fame, so you won't be able to resist dining at The Mercantile to taste some of the scrumptious menu offerings. Of the ninety-eight buildings downtown, eighty-six are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. And The Osage Nation Museum is the oldest tribally operated and owned museum in the country.

Pawhuska also supports its rich history and culture through annual events such as the National Indian Taco Championship where you can experience traditional Native American dance, not to mention delicious native food, and The Cavalcade, the world's largest amateur rodeo. During the Cattleman's Convention, you can experience authentic "cowboy life" with a ranch tour.

You can also "shop 'til you drop" for authentic Native American items that include art, bead work, shawls, and so much more. There are plenty of shops offering western wear and items; and that's not all – in Pawhuska, there is something for everyone. You can spend an entire day shopping at stores such as Saltcreek Marketplace, Gypsy Cowgirl, Mudpies², Spurs and Arrows, Sister's Attic, Prairie Cottage, Sunset Ridge

Gallery, and Just north of Pawhuska, drive through the Tallgrass Prairie Preserve with its protected ecosystem, the largest remnant in North America. Don't miss this opportunity to see bison grazing, three hundred species of birds and other wildlife along this scenic drive. Nearby lakes and a state park make this area a "must do".

ROCKLAHOMA - PRYOR

PRYOR - Rocklahoma and Motor Racing

This progressive community in Green Country is home to the incredibly popular Rocklahoma Music Festival. Held over Labor Day Weekend, this hardcore festival packs three stages with non-stop rock from over 70 head-banging bands. Cyclists travel to Pryor each September to participate in Dam J.A.M., Oklahoma's most scenic one-day bicycle tour featuring fun rides of 30, 55, 71, or 101 miles! Country music lovers pack your wagons for the Born & Raised Festival, also in September. Nearby Salina hosts Chouteau Day - Oklahoma's Founders Day, in October with a huge celebration sure to please the entire family.

For even more thrilling action, head to the Salina Highbanks Speedway - the fastest speedway in Oklahoma! Top off the night at the on-site Finishline Restaurant & Bar or head over to Mid-American Grill for a great meal. Both Pryor and Salina have the privilege of being located around Lake Hudson, where plentiful camping and cabins are available all year.

Art lovers will want to visit the Rabbit Gallery in Pryor, which showcases the incredible work of nationally known artist Traci Rabbit. The Coo-Y-Yah Museum details local history, including art and artifacts from the Cherokee and Osage tribes. Pick up lovely gifts at the Vintique Cottage, and then browse over 30,000 covers at the Book Exchange & Bible Bookstore. Nearby Locust Grove offers unique shopping, museums, and Wonder City Coffee offers locally sourced coffee, tea, meals and more in a quaint setting. Chouteau, another nearby town, and home to a large Amish community, boasts the Amish Bakery and an abundance of antique stores.

SKIATOOK

The City of Skiatook is just minutes from Tulsa's historic downtown district. Enjoy a central retail corridor consisting of a five mile stretch of State Highway 20 that dissects the community and offers shopping, dining, and fun for the entire family. The area's main destination is beautiful Skiatook Lake, which boasts 10,190 surface acres and 160 miles of shoreline. Thousands of people visit each year to swim, boat, hike, camp and connect with nature. Hunters have access to 1,800 acres of project land, and fishing enthusiasts will marvel at the ample populations of sport fish including largemouth bass, small-mouth bass, hybrid striped bass, crappie, channel catfish and bluegill, as well as drum, carp, and buffalo. Skiatook is also a popular sky diving area.

There is plenty of shopping and you won't want to miss the Antique Depot for one-of-a-kind items, antiques, and collectibles. Sausage Brothers is a great meat market and offers high quality smoked meats and more. Stop by the Skiatook Museum to learn more about the regions history.

If all that shopping has worked up an appetite, then you are in luck. Mac's Barbeque offers some of the most mouth-watering, tender barbeque in the state. Grab a bottle or two of their delicious sauce before leaving, and don't forget dessert. Visit the Boars Nest for a cold one and take a picture on JD Hog for the perfect bragging rights.

ROUTE 66 FESTIVAL - VINITA

VINITA - Historic Route 66

Get your kicks on Route 66 in Vinita where America's Main Street is their Main Street too! Vinita hosts special Mother Road celebrations year-round, but really amps things up at the annual Route 66 Festival each June. Grab your medieval attire and join in the festivities at the Queensferry Renaissance Festival in March, cheer on skilled riders at the Will Rogers Memorial Rodeo in August, then give a toast to classic cars at the Route 66 Car Show and Vinita Oktoberfest held in conjunction in October.

Get a dose of local history at the Eastern Trails Museum, located one block west of Route 66 in downtown Vinita. Exhibits feature a local Civil War battle, railroads, ranching and Route 66. Browse a recreated general store, doctor's office, printing office, and post office. As a bonus, admission is free!

Vinita offers a huge variety of shops including 66 Apparel with unique screen printing, embroidery items, and other apparel. Find souvenirs, gifts and much more at the Route 66 Mercantile.

DEWEY

19th Century Charm

With all the appeal of a rugged cowboy town, the charm of Victorian architecture and the hip local flavor of microbreweries and boba tea, the town of Dewey welcomes visitors to experience its unique blend of history and trendiness. Whether you are an Old West buff in search of authentic attractions or have a young family ready to explore festivals and car shows, Dewey invites you to come join the fun.

Western Heritage Day is celebrated in the fall with food trucks, merchandise stands, activities for the kids, and more. You won't want to miss the Longhorn cattle strolling through downtown Dewey in the celebration parade.

Walk in the footsteps of Tom Mix, the beloved star of silent Western movies, and browse collections of his belongings and memorabilia at his namesake museum in the town where he once served as marshal. Across the street you can explore the beautifully restored, Victorian-style Dewey Hotel which now serves as a museum. Make your way through three floors and 31 rooms filled with authentic antique furnishings as you marvel at this charming glimpse into turn-of-the-century hospitality.

DEWEY IS ... FAMILY FUN!

Antique and specialty stores will keep you shopping for hours. Take the family to visit the Tom Mix Museum, Dewey Hotel Museum, and Prairie Song Pioneer Village.
